Renowned Specialist Confirmed For Medical Conference

Synovetics confirms Chairman for 2nd Middle East Cardiology Forum - 2009

Synovetics will once again host the annual Middle East Cardiology Forum in October 2009. The event is the largest of its kind within Abu Dhabi and will bring together heart specialists from the UAE and abroad. Chaired the president of the Emirates Cardiology Society, Dr. Wael Al Mahmeed, Head of Cardiology at Sheikh Khalifa Medical City (SKMC), the forum focuses on the latest developments in the field of cardiology.

According to the World Health Organization, cardiovascular diseases are the number one cause of death globally. By 2015, almost 20 million people will die from CVDs, mainly from heart disease and stroke.

The past few years have brought along exciting developments in the prevention and therapy of various cardiovascular diseases. This conference will provide an integrated, multi disciplinary perspective on the management of common problems in cardiovascular medicine and surgery.

Scheduled to be held on the 23rd and 24th of October, the Middle East Cardiology Forum will feature the expertise of highly respected physicians. The Conference intends to present physicians, nurses and other health care professionals' current information in the diagnosis, evaluation, treatment and medical management of cardiovascular disease. .

The two-day scientific program, supported by the Emirates Cardiac Society and organised by Synovetics, will deliver requisite Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit hours from local and international accrediting bodies for professional re-licensing requirements.

This outlet for experts to exchange knowledge and experience will undoubtedly improve the capabilities and help develop the skills of doctors engaged in Cardiology
